

Global Warming Mums for Late Pollinators

Global Warming Mums are perennial chrysanthemums that continue blooming into late October and November. Even after a hard frost they are hardy enough to keep producing bloom after bloom, extending the season with color and, more importantly, extending the food source for pollinators into late fall. They are vigorous growers and benefit from being pinched back in June.

Use this form to Pre-Order now for Fall Flowers

This spring we are offering a limited quantity two types for sale, 'Autumn Moon' and 'Purple Mist'. These are plants divided and dug from our very own gardens.

Dendranthema 'Autumn Moon'

Pale yellow flowers with a blush of pink.
Grows 18-20" tall and at least twice as wide.

Dendranthema 'Purple Mist'

Light purple flowers radiate to a 3.5" diameter.
Grows up to 24" tall and at least twice as wide.

How many of each?
Autumn Moon _____
Purple Mist _____
very limited quantity

Total Qty _____ Total Cost _____
x $12.99 ea

6.35% tax _____

TOTAL _____

50% deposit _____

Deposits are returned as a store credit only.

Your Name: _____

Address: _____

City/Zip: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Submit to: NATUREWORKS

518 Forest Road,
Northford, CT 06472
Attn: Global Warming

For more info: 203-484-2748

PAYMENT METHOD: CASH _____ CHECK _____ CREDIT CARD _____

CC# _____ Expires _____ Sec. Code _____

AMEX DISCOVER MC VISA

SIGNATURE _____